The NYSF will promptly make arrangements for round-trip air travel on a major commercial airline of its choosing from a major airport near your permanent residence to the Dulles International Airport (IAD). Layovers en route are balanced with the cost of the airfare. You will be scheduled to arrive on June 27, 2019, and depart on July 20, 2019.

In most cases, you will be issued an electronic itinerary (you will be sent this information via E-mail). You must check in online or at the airline counter or kiosk to receive your boarding pass. You are responsible for any and all checked baggage fees – be sure to be prepared for your return flight. If you are responsible for missing your scheduled flight, you will be responsible for any and all additional charges.

If you have special transportation needs, we may be able to work out alternate plans. Please do not hesitate to call us with questions or to discuss your specific needs. While alternate arrangements might be made when necessary, the NYSF will incur a maximum cost equivalent to a round-trip ticket from the major airport nearest your home; you are responsible for any and all cost differences and/or additional charges.

Your travel arrangements will be made soon after the NYSF receives this completed form. Any and all charges (as much as 100% of the fare) due to changes that you request in your travel arrangements after reservations are made are your responsibility.
